

Firearms Scheduling & Licences Required as from March 2019

Sch	Type of Firearm	CLA-S	CLA	TSA-S	TSA	TSB	Conditions	Max Qty
1	Full automatic firearms including those converted to semi automatic	X					Only firearms manufactured before 1946, rare, historic or artistic	No Limit
	Shotguns with barrels shorter than 450mm/17.70"	X	X
	Firearms disguised as other objects	X	X
	Semi automatic centrefire firearms with non removable (integrated) high capacity magazine.	X		X			None
2	Centrefire semi automatic short firearms with removable magazines	X	X	X	X		If capacity over 21 rounds ONLY S Licences	20
	Centrefire semi automatic long firearms with removable magazines	X	X	X	X		If capacity over 11 rounds ONLY S Licences
	Rimfire semiautomatic firearms	X	X	X	X		None
	Repeating firearms eg; bolt action, pump, & lever action rifles, revolvers, etc...	X	X	X	X		None
	Tactical shotguns	X	X	X	X		None
	Single shot firearms	X	X	X	X		None
	Shotguns	X	X			X	None	No limit
	Airguns	X	X			X	None
	Muzzle loading revolvers of post 1899 manufacture	X	X			X	None
Bows and crossbows with a draw weight of 60lb or more	X	X			X	None
3	Fire arms manufactured before 1900 which fire cartridge ammunition	Only subject to registration with the Police if these firearms are kept at home. However a TS license is required to use them on a range and a CL is required if they are to be used for re-enactment. Refer to notes in adjacent column.				None		No limit
	Single shot muzzle loading firearms manufactured after 1899					TSL-B for target shooting and/or re-enactment
	Deactivated firearms with official certificate					CL-A for re-enactment

CLA-S: Collector 'A' special
CLA: Collector 'A'
TSA-S: Target Shootwr 'A' special
TSA: Trget Shooter 'A'
TSB: Target Shooter 'B'

It is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to UPDATE YOURSELF with
 THE LEGISLATION